

Project

Gamifying Learning with H5P

Objective

A case of mercury poisoning is an interactive course that highlights the importance of understanding the risk of occupational hazards and the use of appropriate control measure while working with hazardous substance in the workplace. The course was based on the case of accidental exposure to the organic mercury compound dimethylmercury by Karen Elizabeth Wetterhahn in 1996. The course was developed using the H5P to create the interactive HTML5 content.

Researcher

Prof Dr Victor Hoe Chee Wai

Contact

Prof Dr Victor Hoe Chee Wai (victor@ummc.edu.my)

Project URL

<https://spm.um.edu.my/a-case-of-mercury-poisoning/>